Evaluation is based on recommendations, director knowledge, and information supplied by the student. Preference is given to earliest applications. Payment of the non-refundable deposit ($300) secures your space. In the case of cancellation on the students’ part (no matter the cause), students will lose the deposit as well as any additional costs already incurred. However, every effort will be made to hold losses to a minimum. Students not accepted to the tour receive a full deposit refund.

VIII. Information/Meetings:
Fall semester we have information meetings for prospective tour members (those who are thinking of applying). At those meetings we talk about the tour and answer a lot of questions. Feel free to contact a director at any time to ask questions.

Starting in December and continuing through April, we have meetings once a month for those who have been selected for the tour. In the past, some students have not been in Rexburg winter semester or were unable to attend the meetings. Although that's usually a little more difficult for the student, we send e-mail updates and reminders.

IX. Baggage:
Pack lightly! Most hotels we stay in have multiple floors and usually no elevator. You don’t want to be weighed down by lots of luggage. You will be limited to one small suitcase and one carry-on. Try to find a bag no larger than 29” X 20” X 10”.

We will give you a suggested packing list, currently available on our web site.

X. Insurance:
You must have health insurance to travel with a BYU-Idaho program. You may also want to purchase life insurance and/or a basic travel insurance policy. BYU-Idaho has no funds to compensate for the loss, damage, or theft of luggage and/or personal belongings, or to cover hospitalization or other medical expenses.

XI. LDS Standards and the BYU-Idaho Code of Honor:
While traveling you are ambassadors of the church, BYU-Idaho, your home state, and the US (or your home country). As such, all participants are required to maintain high standards of honor, integrity, and morality in harmony with the values of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. This includes abstinence from coffee, tea, alcohol, and narcotics, as well as following the LDS standards of chastity. Participants will dress modestly and appropriately for the occasion.

XII. Health:
While you aren’t required to climb all the pyramids, go on every hike, swim in every river, etc., that’s half the fun. Be in shape before you go. Also, you will be asked to fill out a health form.
