I agree to accept as a service while participating in the above-mentioned tour the free use of communications equipment. I understand that such equipment will aid me in receiving instructions from tour leaders and allow me to maintain contact with the group.

I further understand that I am not liable for any damage which results in the normal educational use of the communication device.

I accept responsibility for damage, loss, or theft resulting from my own negligence, and agree to pay a replacement fee of $120.
