Dear Friend,

The above-named student is taking a class entitled “Principles of Inner Victory”. They have been asked to identify someone with whom they have a relationship of trust, and invite them to participate in an assignment for the class. The objective of this assignment is to help the person get to know themselves better from the perspective and through the eyes of another person. You have been identified as such a person.

Please take fifteen to thirty minutes to assist this person in completing the assignment by writing a few paragraphs in response to some or all of the questions below. Be objective and positive as well as honest in your suggestions for their potential personal improvement (please include number 5 or 6 in your response). Also, please note the date by which you need to return this to the student so that their assignment can be completed in a timely fashion.

Thank you for your willingness to help this student.

Questions:

1. When you think of this person, what is their single most significant positive character trait?

2. If you were commissioned to write a book (novel) with an objective to help others find meaning to their life with the above-named person as a character; what role would you cast them in? What message would their life bring to the reader? What positive characteristics would you want to accentuate as you cast this person?

3. Imagine that you are given a task to provide employment placement services for the above-named individual, wherein you will evaluate all of their strengths and place them in a career or position to have the most positive affect upon the lives of others. What are their three or four most significant traits? In what area of the workplace do you feel they will grow personally, be able to contribute, and be able to utilize their greatest strengths?

4. Looking to the future when all of us must leave this mortal existence, if you were to design a headstone to be placed at their grave upon their death some 60 years from now, what inscription or epitaph would you include on the marker for future generations to remember? Why?

5. Given all their strengths, can you think of one area where this person might focus attention and energy to improve themself and become even a better person?

6. What advice would give this person as they seek a happy and joyful life personally, professionally, etc.

Please return by: ________________________________

Thank you.