Gospel Teaching Is Scriptural Interpretation.

In the very nature of things, every teacher becomes an interpreter of the scriptures to his hearers. It could not be otherwise. We are to preach, teach, expound, and exhort. But our explanations must be in harmony with prophetic and apostolic utterances, and they will be if they are guided by the Spirit. Remember that these are the chief officers placed in the Church to see that we are not “tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine” (Eph 4:14).

Now, one final word: In the Church we are all brethren; the Lord is no respecter of persons; it is not Church position that saves, but obedience and personal righteousness.
